

Then Battle, the courtly, comes in with his part
 With smiling good nature—God bless his old heart;
Though he sings a low bass, yet you know I don't lie
 When I say, notwithstanding, his tone is quite high.